

Infection control and prevention

Across

5. education/guidelines to prevention and maintain the spread of pathogens

7. tears, saliva, sputum, urine, feces, semen, vaginal secretions, pus, other wound drainage, vomit

10. injury caused from dry heat

11. also known as a germ, single-celled organism, also known as a caustive agent

13. light, flame, heat

14. action of removing (someone) from a place of danger to a safer place

16. damaged wires/cords that leave the wire exposed

17. don gloves, absorb spill, scoop absorbed spill and dispose properly

18. action or state of being made impure by polluting or poisoning

19. set of practices used to reduce destruction caused by fire

20. a way of describing how a disease is transmitted from one human being to another

Down

1. disease resulting in the establishment of pathogens

2. reduction of number of disease-causing agents and their spread

3. container that it used to collect items that can break skin or injur someone

4. able to be transmitted from one to another; contagious or infectious

6. dropping from a higher to a lower plane, the elderly are more at risk

8. measures used to reduce and prevent spread of pathogens

9. someone that acquires an infection in any healthcare setting

12. unforeseen and unplanned event or circumstance

15. process that destroys most pathogens, reducing the pathogen count to a level not considered infectious