

Infection control

Across

3. These can be taken by three routes; Oral, Topical, and by Injection

5. Employers have duties concerning the provision and use of these within the workplace

9. method for administering patient care while preventing the transmission of highly contagious diseases

10. Most commonly known as the flu.

11. Is the body's defense against infections

12. A small infectious agent that replicates only inside the living cells of other organisms

13. A subjective indication of a disease or a change in condition as perceived by the patient

15. to implant a disease in a person to stimulate disease resistance

Down

1. You are more prone to getting a _____ if your immune system is weakened

2. Diseases such as Tuberculosis, Chicken Pox and Influenza are spread by this transmission?

4. A sudden increase in numbers of a harmful organism

6. Very contagious infection that appears as a rash all over the body

7. Completed separation from others of a person suffering with an infectious disease

8. It involves five simple and effective steps (Wet, Lather, Scrub, Rinse, Dry)

14. The organism from which a parasite obtains its nutrition and/or shelter