

Name: _____

Date: _____

Informational Break

Across

- 4. Test that is written to provide information to do something in steps is called?
- 8. Texts that tell what happened in the past is called?
- 10. What is the most important smaller pieces of detail called?
- 11. This is what gets an author started. It is the beginning of every text.

13. What is the text mostly about?

14. How do details help the main idea of a text?

Down

- 1. Words said directly from a text are called?
- 2. Texts that tell how something happened to make something else happen is called?
- 3. Text that is written to inform about science information is called?

5. What is making guesses based on clues in the text?

6. What is facts found within a text?

7. How two or more things belong together shows their _____.

9. What is retelling a text in a shorter way?

12. What is information that support what the whole text is about?