

Informational Vocabulary

Across

3. What someone thinks, feels, or believes about something.
7. To back up with proof.
8. Facts or examples that tell the reader more information about the main idea.
9. A statement about something that can be proven with evidence.
10. A statement in informational text that tells you what the author is going to discuss or prove.

Down

1. The pattern in which informational or non fiction texts are written
2. Text that gives factual information on a specific topic or event.
4. The author's opinion on an issue or topic.
5. To put things into an arrangement or special order
6. Who or what the text is about. A text may have more than one.

Word Bank

Support

Opinion

Informational

Supporting details

Controlling Idea

Organize

Fact

Topic

Text structure

Viewpoint