

Inkheart

Across

2. famous or well known , typically or some bad quality or deed.
 3. a maze-structure from greek mythology.
 5. steal goods from (a place or person, typically using force and in a time of war or civil disorder)
 9. savagely fierce , cruel , or violent.
 10. Climb , move , or get in or get in or out of something in and awkward and laborious way , typically using both hands and feet.

11. convert(a text written in code, or a coded signal) into normal language.

12. drive , push, or cause to move in particular direction.

13. given the impression that something harmful or evil is happening or will happen

15. deliberately destroy or damage (public or private property.)

16. fearful apprehension a feeling that something bad will happen

Down

1. A person who binds books as a profession.

4. a blank or decorated leaf of paper at the beginning or end of a book, especially one fixed to the inside of the cover.

6. means to look at something critically or examine carefully.

7. teasing and contemptuous language or behavior directed at a particular person or thing.

8. tending to avoid commitment or self-revelation, especially by responding only indirectly.

14. lacking any obvious principle of organization.