

Name: _____

Instruments of the Orchestra

Across

2. The name of the person who leads the orchestra.
5. A wooden instrument that uses a single reed in the barrel mouthpiece.
6. A high pitched woodwind instrument.
10. This instrument is the lowest pitched member of the woodwind family.

11. The number of families instruments are grouped into in an orchestra.
12. The musical term for a group of instrumentalists.

Down

1. The largest instrument of the string family, popular in jazz bands.
3. This wooden instrument belongs to the percussion family: it looks like a piano and played with beaters.

4. The smallest member of the string family.
7. The musical term for speed.
8. This large drum belongs to the percussion family in the orchestra and is tuned to very low notes.
9. This is the name of the stick waved by the conductor.