

Insulation and Energy Saving

Across

3. The tool used in measuring temperature
5. The process of keeping heat energy from spreading or escaping
7. An expanded polystyrene used especially for making food containers.
8. Is measured in Degrees Celsius
9. The invisible gaseous substance surrounding the earth, a mixture mainly of oxygen and nitrogen.

10. A hard, transparent, brittle substance, typically used as a drinking container

Down

1. The care and protection of resources so that they can last longer
2. It is also known as Thermal Energy
4. The return of light waves from a surface
6. A printed publication consisting of folded unstapled sheets, that contains news, articles, advertisements