

Name: _____ Date: _____

Insulin Administration

1. How quickly the insulin reaches the bloodstream and begins to lower blood glucose
  2. The time when the insulin is at its maximum effectiveness
  3. The length of time during which the insulin is effective.
  4. Who should inject the insulin?
  5. Rapid Acting
  6. Long - acting
  7. Orders for insulin should always be written as
  8. Provides continuous insulin delivery and manual or programmed surges via catheter
  9. Contains insulin cartridges and deliver insulin subcutaneously through a needle
  10. If drawing from an opened multi-use vial you should check
- A. pens
  - B. Peak effects
  - C. Units
  - D. Duration of effects
  - E. the person who draws it up
  - F. expiration date
  - G. onset of 10 - 15 minutes
  - H. pump
  - I. onset of 1 -2 hrs
  - J. Onset of action