

Name: _____ Date: _____

Insulin Administration

- |   |                               |
|---|-------------------------------|
| 1. How quickly the insulin reaches the bloodstream and begins to lower blood glucose. | A. Onset of action            |
| 2. The time when the insulin is at its maximum effectiveness.                         | B. Units                      |
| 3. The length of time during which the insulin is effective.                          | C. Long acting                |
| 4. Who should inject the insulin?   | D. expiration                 |
| 5. Onset of 10 - 15 minutes   | E. the person who draws it up |
| 6. Onset of 1 - 2 hrs   | F. pen                        |
| 7. Orders for insulin should always be written as                                     | G. Peak effects               |
| 8. Provides continuous insulin delivery and manual or programmed surges via catheter  | H. Duration of effects        |
| 9. Contains insulin cartridges and deliver insulin subcutaneously through a needle    | I. pump                       |
| 10. If drawing from an opened multi-use container you should check                    | J. Rapid Acting               |