

Intellectual Development

Across

- 7. Process of developing perception
- 11. An agent such as light or sound that directly influences the activity of the senses
- 14. The words a person understands but does not say
- 16. The words a person understands and uses
- 17. Changes of pitch
- 18. the ability to learn the na object stays the same form one time to the next
- 19. A light, happy sound babies begin to use to communicate between six and either weeks after birth
- 20. Copying the actions of someone else

21. Organizing information that comes through the senses

22. How people learn, what they learn and how they express what they know through language

Down

- 1. The ability to learn that objects remain the same even if they appear different
- 2. Sounds all in a single pitch
- 3. The ability to learn that people, objects, and places exist even when they are no longer seen, felt to heard
- 4. The ability to tell how far away something is
- 5. Repeating the same syllable over and over again

6. Type of vision that involves fusing an image so it appears as one image using both eyes

8. An idea formed by combining what is known about a person, object, place, quality or an event

9. Piaget's first stage of cognitive or intellectual development

10. The words a person uses in talking or writing

12. To make a series of vowel sounds with consonant sounds slowly added to form a syllable

13. The ability to understand that an object, person or event is separate from one's interaction with it

15. The act or process of knowing or understanding