

Intellectual Disabilities

Across

- 4. _____ of 70 or lower
- 6. a type of functioning that affects activities such as learning, problem solving, and judgement
- 7. type of accommodation that allows student to work in small groups or partners
- 8. another name for an intellectual disability
- 10. It is important to teach this type of skills along with academic skills

Down

- 1. A characteristic of students with this disability is lack of self-_____

- 2. concrete objects used for counting and geometry
- 3. a type of functioning that affects activities of daily life such as communication and independent living
- 5. _____ is determined by the students CCC based on the results from the educational evaluation
- 9. A student with a moderate cognitive disability has cognitive functioning that generally falls between _____ standard deviations below the mean