

Interior Design - Objective 1.01

Across

2. Photographs, floor plan drawings, free hand sketches

8. pleasing in appearance without personal bias

9. Phase 2 of the interior design process. A brainstorming session of creativity and innovation

10. Takes place before the interior design process begins

11. An educational work experience for credit

12. Phase 1 - The designer cleverly identifies the client's design problem. Interviews the client to fully understand the needs of the project

Down

1. Phase 5 - The design comes to life. Designer schedules and monitors construction work and costs

3. Phase 3 of the interior design process. Phase includes critical analysis, problem solving, material furnishings, budget and client sign offs

4. Phase 4 - involves preparing formal documents for the construction and installation of design

5. A person who works for another to learn a trade

6. spending time with a person at work and learning by watching as he or she performs the functions of the job

7. A brief summary of a person's education, skills, work experience, activities, and interests.