

International Business Vocabulary

Across

3. a person that has the same function, role or job as another person in a different place or situation

7. distinguishing qualities or characteristics of a specific group of people

8. To give new energy or strength to something or someone

9. Restriction on the quantity of a good or service that can enter or leave a country

10. To force access to a particular place, thing or market

Down

1. Containing people and things from many nationalities and cultures

2. Government imposed restrictions to imports and exports, usually in the form of quotas and tariffs

4. a particular way of considering or thinking about something

5. Study of how living things affect and interact with their surroundings and the environment

6. Government tax charged on a product or service as it enters or leaves a country