

Name: _____

Date: _____

Internet, Email and E Diary Terms

Across

- 1. The software used to search the world wide web
- 8. A collection of pages joined together published on the internet
- 9. A message sent using a computer network to one or more people
- 11. The biggest database which allows you to search the internet
- 14. Computers connected up within an organisation that can only be accessed there
- 16. If an email is very important then this will be the priority level
- 17. A piece of hardware that a computer uses to access the internet

18. A self-replicating program which is designed to damage computer software

20. When two or more computers are joined a computer is formed

Down

- 2. Another page or website can be accessed by clicking on this
- 3. This is the language used by most webpages
- 4. This software helps users search the world wide web
- 5. When you want an appointment or important date to repeat
- 6. A way of saving the way sites you use most often

7. A collection of computers within the same building or area

- 10. A way of compressing files on the internet so they can be emailed
- 12. A organisation that provides access to the internet
- 13. A file send with an email
- 15. Good websites will ask you to do this to access their services
- 19. The term which refers to the web page of a business

Word Bank

- | | | | | |
|------------|----------|--------------|-----------|-----------|
| URL | zip | searchengine | virus | browser |
| network | login | website | recurring | hyperlink |
| Modem | html | email | LAN | Google |
| Attachment | Intranet | ISP | favourite | high |