

Internet Safety

Across

4. A _____ "breaks" into your computer and steal any information they can get.
5. Something repeated over and over on the internet is a _____.
8. When someone sends another person an email pretending to be a company in order to steal their personal information. This is called _____.
9. When your online you should always take _____ just in case of an accident or disruption.
10. _____ is a type of software (like a virus) that is spread on your computer to disable or damage your computer.

11. When one or more people hurt another person mentally or emotionally online is called _____.
15. A _____ is something spread on your computer initially created to ruin or delete your computer data.

Down

1. People who try to gain your trust to get your private information and steal things from you are _____.
2. _____ is like plagiarism, when someone takes someone else's creation and says its their own.
3. Having to deal with something is having _____ in online decisions or accidents.

6. A global computer network that provides us google, yahoo, Bing and more online references is called the _____.
7. Something that you do NOT want other people to see is _____.
12. When online you should always follow the _____.
13. _____ are used to specify the site you are on. They usually start with www but sometimes they may be different.
14. You should always put a _____ on anything in your computer so people cannot get on it without a password.