

Interview

Across

4. You should always send a

6. Someone who provides information from direct experience

8. questions that require you to take a

10. A formal Meeting, usually face to face, in which people obtain information by asking questions

12. interviewers look for

14. the person responding to the questions

16. interviewers look for

17. interviewers look for

19. someone who can be depended upon to give accurate information about a subject

20. questions that check

Down

1. Questions that request

2. interviewers look for

3. A brief account of a person's work experience, education and special awards

5. Someone who provides information that originated with other people

7. The person asking questions

9. interviewers look for

11. Questions that probe

13. Self confidence is a

15. interviewers look for

18. interviewers look for