

Interview crossword

Across

2. A method that involves seeing the world through human behaviour and rejects the view that sociology is science
3. A type of interview that is informal
8. A type of interview that involves many people
10. A factor that affects the respondents answers

11. Uses words to describe people's feelings about a particular subject or an event
12. how far the findings of research provide an authentic picture of what is being studied

Down

1. A type of interview that uses closed-ended questions
4. A type of interview that used closed and opened ended questions

5. Data that is represented in number form
6. The research method which can be conducted face to face or over the phone
7. A method that sees sociology as a science
9. When you use the same method as previous researcher, and get similar results