

Intro Psychology Vocab term Crossword

Across

5. Consistency or repeatability.
 7. Takes the result from all published studies on the same questions and combines them
 9. A selection that is achieved by mixing choices and picking blindly.
 10. Paired X and Y scores for each subject are plotted as single points on a graph.
 11. The imitation pill, injection, patch, or other treatment.

12. A measure of the likelihood that the difference between groups result from a real difference between 2 groups rather than from chance alone.

13. The extent to which an instrument measure or predicts what it is supposed to do.

14. The behavior or mental process that is measured.

Down

1. Describes specific procedure used to determine the presence of a variable.

2. Difference between the experimental group and the control group other than those resulting from the ID

3. The degree to which scores differ from each other and vary other around the mean value for the set.

4. Clues participants discover about the purpose of the study and rumors suggesting how they respond.

6. A research design in which the participants don't know which experimental group they're in.

8. The variable that is manipulated.