

Name: _____

Intro to Ecology

Across

3. A consumer that eats only animals
8. A community of all living things that interact with the nonliving things in one area is called a _____.
9. What are living things in an ecosystem called?
10. The place where a particular plant or animal lives or grows
11. _____ is a group of organisms of the same species that live in the same area.
12. An _____ is a single individual animal, plant, or other living things.
15. The levels at which organisms and the environment is organized

16. What is a consumer that eats only plants?

18. What is considered to be all the populations that live and interact with each other in a particular place?

Down

1. A group of organisms that are physically similar and can mate with each other and produce offspring is called _____.
2. A _____ is an organism that feed on dead or decaying organisms.
4. What is an organism that use sunlight and energy that they store to make their own food?

5. An _____ is a behavior or physical characteristic that's allows an organism to survive or reproduce in its environment.

6. A nonliving thing in an ecosystem is an _____.

7. These consumers eat both plants and animals

13. The functional role of an organism in an ecosystem is considered its _____.

14. Organisms that rely on other organism for their energy and food supply are called _____.

17. The scientific study of the interactions between different organisms and between organisms and their environment