

Intro to Occupational Therapy

Across

5. Highest level of functioning. Does not require any assistance.

10. OT organization that advocates for OT and for the members by the members

11. National organization that regulates entry-level EDUCATION standards for OT programs

12. Part of philosophy that looks at the nature of humankind. Asks what is human kind?

13. Furthers the LEGISLATIVE aims of OT.

16. Est 1952 INTERNATIONAL organization for OT advocacy.

17. Approach that sees a human as a whole.

18. Organization responsible for administering the national CERTIFICATION exam.

Down

1. Length of Level II fieldwork for OTA. (weeks)

2. Part of philosophy that studies the values.

3. Profession that uses purposeful activities to promote function.

4. Approach that sees a human as a series of parts.

6. Part of philosophy that investigates the nature, origin, and limits of human knowledge. Asks how do we know what we know?

7. STUDENT representatives that participate in the AOTA and provide feedback at meetings

8. Length of Level II fieldwork for OT. (weeks)

9. Requires an Associates Degree from an accredited institution

14. National organization used to increase the SCIENCE in OT

15. Requires a Master's degree or higher from an accredited institution