

Introducion to Ecology Unit 2 Lesson 1

Across

5. What is the study of how organisms interact with one another and with the environment?
 7. A large region characterized by a specific type of climate and certain types of plant and animal communities.
 8. A community of organisms and their nonliving environment.
 9. The place where an organism usually lives and is part of an organism's niche.
 10. A living part of an environment, such as plants and animals.

Down

1. A group of individuals of the same species that live in the same place at the same time.
 2. A _____ is made up of all the populations of different species that live and interact in an area.
 3. Organisms that are closely related and can mate to produce fertile offspring.
 4. A nonliving part of an environment, such as water, soil, sunlight and water.
 6. The abiotic conditions under which individuals can survive and the role they play in the ecosystem.

Word Bank

Ecology

abiotic factor

Biome

habitat

niche

population

ecosystem species

community

biotic factor