

Name: _____

Date: _____

Introduction to Ecology

Across

- 4. the max size of population that an ecosystem can support
- 6. species that are protected from being killed.
- 9. killing and selling game without any restrictions
- 10. the science that uses the knowledge of population density and carrying capacity to determine the limits on the harvest of game species

Down

- 1. land that is set aside and managed for wildlife and other public uses

- 2. also called the "duck stamp," its purchase is a federal requirement for those hunting migratory birds, in order to raise the necessary funds that established the National Wildlife Refuge System
- 3. a law passed by congress that requires taxes collected on fishing and boating equipment and boat fuel to be used for fishing habitat, also called the Federal Aid in Sport Fish Restoration Act
- 5. a law passed by Congress that requires taxes collected on hunting licenses, firearms, ammunition, and archery equipment to be used for wildlife conservation.
- 7. those species that can be legally killed
- 8. refers to the taking of wildlife by any method that is illegal