

Introduction to New Concepts

Across

2. Are what helps someone pray. Which connects them to the Ultimate reality.
 5. The Jews keep God's laws. The Jews seek to bring holiness
 7. Sacred sites are places within the landscape that have a special meaning or significance
 11. Are used to stand for or have a religious representation and often a material object is used to represent something immaterial.
 12. Texts which religious traditions consider to be central to their practice or beliefs.
 13. Told to be true
 15. Emphasizing the essential oneness of humankind and of all religions and seeking world peace.

16. Something sacred is holy, devoted to a religious ceremony, or simply worthy of awe and respect.

18. Often place the religious leadership at or near the top of society. It shows the composition of the community of the religious tradition.

20. Hindus believe in truth. They think telling the truth is everything even if you are hurting someone's feelings

21. Aboriginal being the core of their own identity. It gives meaning to all aspects of life including relationships with one another and the environment

Down

1. A religious or solemn ceremony consisting of a series of actions performed according to a prescribed order.

3. A continuous routine of prayers, rituals and annual ceremonies.

4. Is a subjective experience which is interpreted within a religious framework.

6. He feeling of presence of something beyond ourselves and beyond explanation.

8. People who believe in the holy spirit. Jesus is the son of God.

9. The religion of the Muslims, a monotheistic faith regarded as revealed through Muhammad as the Prophet of Allah.

10. Inherent in life and that one can be liberated from it by cultivating wisdom, virtue, and concentration.

14. Founded in Punjab in the 15th century by Guru Nanak

17. The branch of knowledge that deals with moral principles

19. A system of belief, attitudes, and practices set towards the service and living to a person's nature