

Name: _____

Date: _____

Introduction to Physiology

Across

- 1. no opening of tissues or skin
- 2. How the body maintains a stable internal enviro?
- 6. Nutrients to build new matter and body Rx
- 9. Humans are what % water?
- 11. small incisions/cuts in skin/cameras

- 12. When the rx leads to a decrease or change the opposite direction.
- 13. often refers to a self-initiated change in an oranism position
- 14. an increase in body size, without any important change in shape

Down

- 3. cutting through skin/tissues

- 4. When the Rx leads to an increase in the Rx.
- 5. process of obtaining oxygen, using oxygen release food substances, and removing gaseous waste
- 7. Utilized to release energy from food substance
- 8. form of energy
- 10. the movementof substance within the body in body fluids

Word Bank

- | | | | |
|------------------|--------------|-------------|--------------|
| Respiration | 60% | growth | Oxygen |
| movement | non invasive | Homeostasis | Foods |
| Heat | circulation | Invasive | Positive FBL |
| Minimal invasive | Negative FBL | | |