

Investigation Vocabulary

Across

3. a proposition made as a basis for reasoning, without any assumption of its truth.

6. a controlled investigation carried out to answer a scientific question.

7. how accurate the test results are

10. the variable being tested in a scientific experiment.

11. a test of the performance, qualities, or suitability of something or someone.

12. to do multiple times.

Down

1. The experimental element which is constant and unchanged throughout the course of the investigation.

2. the variable changed by the scientist

4. any display of information in tabular form for the purpose of recording information

5. a type of research in which a problem is identified, relevant data are gathered, a hypothesis is formulated from the data and the hypothesis is tested.

8. a purpose or intention; a desired outcome

9. amount to or achieve as an average rate or amount over a period of time.