

Involuntary Manslaughter

Across

2. D and V each prepared an injection mix of heroin and water. They injected each other. V died and D was convicted for administering the substance

8. D agreed to bring 60 illegal immigrants. The vent was too small in the lorry and D closed the vent before boarding the ferry. Found that 58 of them had died.

11. Defendant and friend were fooling around with a revolver, defendant pointed gun at friend and killed him but neither knew it would fire.

12. D and others asked to leave a public house. Went to car and one of the passengers shouted something at doorman who was V. V approached vehicle and D drove off with V hanging out of window and was dragged under wheel and suffered injured which he later died of

13. D was a landlord and faulty gas fire caused death of tenants.

14. D was doctor that attended a woman for the birth of her child at home. Part of her uterus came away and D did not send V to the hospital and she later died.

15. D was heroin addict and prepared a syringe of heroin and then injected himself. V was ill and D asked passer by to call an ambulance then left the scene.

16. D set fire to his council flat so he could be re-housed. Wife, son and another woman died in the fire and convicted of manslaughter

18. D tried to push his way into a queue at the post office and old man told him off. D then punched the man and causing him to stagger backwards into 89 year old V who later died of her injuries.

Down

1. Anaesthetist failed to notice an oxygen tube falling out and the patient died.

3. D's failed to recognise infection in D's knee after operation and died

4. Defendant threatened another man with a cut throat razor, the female victim was drunk and fell onto the razor and killed her.

5. D's pushed a piece of paving stone from a bridge onto a railway line as a train approached and hit the train and killed the guard.

6. D was owner of a sailing ship and sailed knowing that the engines might fail. Ship was blown into rocks and three crew members died

7. D's attempted to rob a petrol station. They were masked and armed with pick-axe handles. V sounded alarm but dropped dead from heart attack, but they were not convicted of manslaughter.

9. D's lit a cigarette inside a nightclub and were asked to leave. They later returned and kicked a fire door which led to a fight between them and V. V died of loss of blood

10. D's threw a brick through a window of a house and entered intending to steal property. V was an old man who was then abused by D's and later died of a heart attack

17. D willingly neglected baby son and was convicted of manslaughter