

"Iron Curtain" Speech

Across

- 2. The author of this speech is named _____, he also served as Prime Minister of Great Britain throughout WWII
- 4. Countries like China, Japan, and Korea have often been referred to as the (blank).
- 10. During the Cold War, the US used the policy of (blank), where they aimed to create buffer zones to avoid interaction with communist countries.
- 11. America practices (blank), the political structure where citizens vote to elect officials.

12. A natural disaster might be considered a (blank) because it caused great damage to an area.

Down

- 1. Countries like Great Britain, Canada, and Australia belong to the (Blank), the collection of countries involved in the British Empire.
- 3. This US President assumed the office after the passing of President Franklin Delano Roosevelt
- 5. Countries like Russia, Poland, and Yugoslavia belonged to the(Blank), the collection of communist countries in Eastern Europe and Eurasia.
- 6. An expert giving a speech might (blank), to write in great detail on a subject.
- 7. The allied leaders met at _____ following WWII, which roughly translates to White House
- 8. Christian missionaries attempt to (blank) a new community in an attempt to make them believe in Christianity.
- 9. Since the Russian revolution, the Soviet Union has practiced (blank), the political/economic structure where property belongs to the state and its citizens share it equally.