

Jehovah's Witnesses Healthcare

Across

4. Jehovah's Witnesses believe that _____ blood transfusions are prohibited by several Biblical passages.
5. Jehovah's Witnesses accept the vast majority of medical treatments, including surgical and _____ procedures, devices, and techniques, as well as hemostatic and therapeutic agents.
6. Jehovah's Witnesses value _____ and actively seek quality medical care for themselves and their children.
7. "Some religions restrict the use of certain forms of medical treatment. For example, persons of the Jehovah Witness faith do not receive blood _____" (Hinkle & Cheever, 2018, p. 69).
9. Jehovah's Witnesses can "potentially" accept _____ which is one of the "fractions" from plasma.

10. Jehovah's Witnesses can "potentially" accept _____ which is considered a "fraction" from red blood cells.

Down

1. Jehovah's Witnesses also believe that _____ autologous blood deposit (PAD) for later reinfusion are prohibited.
2. Jehovah's Witnesses must refuse "Whole Blood" which includes red cells, white cells, _____, and plasma.
3. Jehovah is a form of the Hebrew name of _____ used in some translations of the Bible.
8. As nurses, you must consider all ethical, legal, and _____ factors when treating patients who are Jehovah's Witnesses.