

Journalism

Across

- 3. The 6th generation of mass media that incorporates both visual and audio engagement from audience
- 6. Important to consider when comprehending the value importance and meaning of writing
- 8. The 4th generation of mass media used to address audience via audio
- 10. The Author of a novel deemed as the “first breed of New Journalism”

11. An aspect of journalism that must remain intact and respected to ensure the integrity of journalism and media

12. A characteristic and value of New Journalism

14. A literary movement in the 1960's and 1970's with an emphasis on "truth" over "facts"

16. Digital form of communication

Down

1. A quality found in Gonzo journalism

2. An exaggerated, humorous technique of journalism with little to no claims of objectivity

4. The interrelation of electric currents or fields and magnetic fields contributing to the creation of the 4th generation of mass media

5. Done by journalists

7. The act of being dynamic found on television

9. A quality found in Gonzo journalism

13. A quality of television by incorporating optics

15. A traditional form of media, found on paper