

Journalism Law and Ethics Vocabulary

Across

- 2. Information not to be attributed or printed
- 5. promise to keep information or a source secret
- 12. written defamation of character
- 13. ruining someone's good reputation
- 14. to take back and correct something that was wrongly printed
- 15. knowing what is right and wrong

16. a place designated for free speech

17. laws that shed light on government documents and business and allow for their viewing by the public

Down

- 1. public's right to access and view documents from city and state meetings
- 3. government review of information prior to print; viewed as censorship
- 4. legally responsible

6. review of information before it is printed-read only

7. words or language that is considered offensive or lewd

8. laws that protect journalists from having to reveal their sources

9. Legal right to writing, drawing, or song and its publication

10. Removal of information before it is printed

11. spoken defamation of character