

Julius Caesar - Identify the character

Across

- 3. Et tu, _____! Then fall, Caesar.
- 4. Caesar's wife
- 9. You know what you do; do not consent that Antony speak in his funeral - Who is the speaker?
- 10. Caesar was celebrated for defeating _____
- 12. Caesar, all hail! good morrow, worthy Caesar: I come to fetch you to the senate-house. - Who is the speaker?

- 14. Danger knows full well that _____ is more dangerous than he
- 15. O mighty Caesar! dost thou lie so low? - Who is the speaker?

Down

- 1. The toothsayer's warning: Beware the _____ of March
- 2. Neither heaven nor earth have been at peace tonight - Who uttered these words?
- 5. Who stabs Caesar first?

- 6. _____ die many times before their deaths
- 7. when they shall see the face of Caesar they shall be _____
- 8. Not that I loved Caesar less, but that I loved _____ more
- 11. Decius brutus agreed with Calpurnia's interpretation of her dream - True or False?
- 13. Liberty! Freedom! _____ is dead!

Word Bank

- |          |               |             |               |        |
|----------|---------------|-------------|---------------|--------|
| vanished | Julius Caesar | brute       | calpurnia     | ides   |
| tyranny  | Rome          | Cassius     | Decius Brutus | Casca  |
| cowards  | False         | Mark Antony | Pompei        | Caesar |