

Name: _____

Date: _____

Juniors Ch 16 part 2 vocab focus words

- | | |
|--|-----------------------|
| 1. Angle at which fingers are held when cutting | A. Hairline |
| 2. A type of diagonal line that created movement away from the face. | B. free-hand notching |
| 3. A type of diagonal line that creates movement toward the face. | C. Graduated haircut |
| 4. Where and how hair is moved over the head. | D. Growth pattern |
| 5. Also known as slithering | E. Guideline |
| 6. Process of working metal to a finished shape by hammering or pressing | F. Diagonal back |
| 7. Points of the head which signal a change in the shape of the head. | G. Forged |
| 8. Also known as projection or lifting. | H. Cutting line |
| 9. Haircutting technique in which pieces of hair are snipped out at random intervals. | I. Graduation |
| 10. Haircutting technique used to release weight from the subsection, allowing the hair to move more freely. | J. Diagonal forward |
| 11. Slow or immediate buildup of weight. Example a 45 or 180 degree angle. | K. Effilating |
| 12. Elevation that occurs when a section is lifted above 0 degrees. | L. free-hand slicing |
| 13. Direction in which the hair grows from the scalp. Also known as a "cow-lick" | M. Four corners |
| 14. Also known as the guide | N. Distribution |
| 15. Hair that grows at the outermost perimeter along the face. | O. Elevation |