

Key Science Words

Across

4. When an experimenter affects the outcome, or when a journalist favours a point of view
6. Something good or helpful
8. A factor that can be changed, measured and controlled
9. Organisation or person that pays for scientific research
10. Measurements or observations offered to support or oppose a theory

Down

1. How likely something is to be harmful
2. Shows proportions or percentages that make up a whole
3. A relationship between variables where one increases or decreases as the other increases
5. When repeat readings are close together
7. The maximum and minimum values of a variable