

Name: _____

Date: _____

Key terms

Across

7. Behavior exhibited by a horse during feeding

8. The tendency of horses to do what the group does

11. Behavior demonstrated by horses during defecation or urination

12. The imposition of a behavior pattern in a young animal by exposure to stimuli; for example, exposure to humans

13. A horse that we run back to the barn

15. Stimulus used to train horses

17. The use of multiple bouts of work interspersed with relief interval when partial recover is allowed

Down

1. Horses with sunken eyes

2. Behavior indicating desire for care and attention

3. Response to a stimulus that is learned

4. Mimicry behavior

5. A response that occurs without practice

6. Activities used to maintain themselves

9. Imitating the behavior of other animals

10. Term used when the membrane of the mouth where the bit rest becomes toughened and the nerves deadened because of continued pressure from the bit

14. Positive reinforcement

16. A nervous horse

Word Bank

Ingestive behavior

Epimeletic behavior

Reward training

Reactive behavior

Barn-sour

Conditioned response

Eliminative behavior

Unconditioned response

Hard mouth

Herd obedience

Mimicry behavior

Imprinting

Interval training

Pig eyed

Allelomimetic behavior

Cue

Flighty