

Name: _____

Key words Crossword (Frankenstein)

Across

2. This means an action is right or wrong: _____
4. A quality or condition of being dual: _____
5. No longer feel angry about or wish to punish someone for what they have done: _____
11. The name of the scientist, who is also the main character in Mary Shelley's book: _____
12. Feeling of excessive pride or self confidence: _____
14. Greek mythology and it means forethought: _____
16. Facts, information, and skills acquired through experience or education: _____

17. Biology, Chemistry, Physics: _____

18. Treating someone badly because they have claimed or complained of discrimination: _____

19. A feeling of fellowship or friendship: _____

20. A person who has an obsessive desire for power: _____

Down

1. What you call something when it comes into existence: _____

3. A movement in the arts and literature which originated in the late 18th century: _____

6. When something is taken away: _____

7. The ability to understand and understand the feelings of another: _____

8. Belonging to redolent of the Dark Ages, usually gloomy or horrifying. It is also an adjective: _____

9. When you believe in something/someone: _____

10. This is an adjective and is when a person's behavior/attitude is extreme: _____

13. A sympathetic pity and concern for the sufferings or misfortunes of others: _____

15. Another word for selfish: _____