

Name: _____

Kick Butts

Across

4. Substance that causes physiological or psychological damage.
10. To return to a normal state of mind.
11. A drug that slows the central nervous system.
16. Smoke exhaled from the lungs of the smoker or the smoke from the burning end of the cigarette.
17. To be solemn or without drugs or alcohol in system.
18. The addictive drug found in cigarettes.
19. Air that has been contaminated by tobacco smoke (Hint the answer is an acronym).

20. Tobacco residue left on furniture-

21. The process that occurs in the body when nicotine is no longer used.

Down

1. Uncontrolled growth of abnormal cells that line air passage.
2. Household or industrial chemicals whose vapors cause unexpected intoxication. Very dangerous and could cause death.
3. A product that delivers small amounts of nicotine into the users system.
5. A colorless, odorless, toxic flammable gas found in cigarettes.
6. Tobacco that is sniffed through nose held in the mouth, or chewed.
7. A cancer causing substance that can be found in tobacco.
8. A dry cannabis leaf that when smoked causes high.
9. A drug that increases the action of the central nervous system.
12. Drug or substance that affects mood or behavior, sold for nonmedical purposes.
13. A dangerous dose of drugs that could cause death.
14. Thick, sticky, dark fluid produced when tobacco is burnt.
15. Thickened, white, leathery spots in the mouth that could form into oral cancer.