

LDC: Rocks and Minerals

Across

2. Wearing away rocks by these natural processes

4. A property of mineral where you can identify if the rock's color

7. This property of a mineral detects if the mineral attracts iron

9. Bits of rock that form a type of rock is called a

10. A type rock that changes is changed over time

Down

1. The type of rock that forms when melted rock cools and hardens

3. This property of a mineral can be identified by how the mineral breaks

5. a property of a mineral identified by how easily the mineral can be scratched

6. A naturally occurring, nonliving solid that has specific makeup and a repeating structure

8. The color of powder a mineral leaves when rubbed on rough tile