

LEGAL & ETHICAL RESPONSIBILITIES:

Across

- 3. States the measures that should or should not be taken to prolong life when conditions are terminal.
- 6. Contains information about the care provided to that patient.
- 9. Factors of care that a patient can expect to receive.
- 11. Is the behavior which is known as a crime.
- 13. Responsibilities are those that are authorized or based on law.

14. The touching of another person without their consent.

15. Focuses on the legal relationships between people and the protection of a person's rights.

Down

1. Is an agreement between two or more parties.

2. A contract in which it is stated in distinct and clear language.

4. The touching of another person without their consent.

5. A wrongful act and does not involve a contract.

7. Failure to provide care that is normally expected to be given.

8. When false information has been written.

10. When false information is spoken.

12. A person who works under the direction or control of another.