

LITERACY

Across

- 2. Sound words (ex: Buzz - Bang - Boom)
- 12. using “like” or “as” to compare two different things
- 13. subject performs the action stated by the verb
- 14. person, place and thing
- 15. Objects that stand for something else
- 16. Has a subject and verb and acts as a complete sentence
- 19. an essay that educates your reader

- 20. Repetition of the same sound or letter within a line

Down

- 1. a group of words that lacks either a verb or a subject, and that functions as a unified part of speech.
- 3. modified or describe a noun
- 4. Characters who change throughout the story
- 5. Characters who do not change at all
- 6. indicative, imperative, interrogative, conditional and subjunctive.
- 7. Has a subject and a verb, acts as a noun in a sentence
- 8. an affix which is placed before the stem of a word
- 9. The author’s intent or reason for producing a piece of writing
- 10. an exaggerated expression
- 11. modifies a verb, adjective, determiner, clause, preposition, or sentence.
- 17. Life lesson learned
- 18. The problem in a story