

LOTO Crossword

Across

3. How many keys should open each lockout lock?

6. The most common energy source locked out is _____ energy.

8. What lockout device is needed to have multiple locks on a single source?

11. When you place a lock on a cell door to prevent it from closing, this type of entry is referred to as _____.

12. The _____ rule may save your life in an arc flash situation.

14. What does the abbreviation HEC stand for?

15. Which CSA standard outlines lockout guidelines?

16. Air pressure is referred to as _____ energy.

Down

1. Holding the LOTO key in your pocket is considered to be _____ control.

2. This document shows you how and where to lock out equipment.

4. Along with lockout out active energy points, LOTO must consider what other type of energy?

5. How do you control gravitational energy in a press?

7. If you are trained and signed off to complete lockout tasks, you are considered a(n) _____ person.

9. If you are not trained for LOTO, you are considered to be a(n) _____ person.

10. How can you dissipate thermal energy?

13. This is the colour of the shop locks here at Blount Canada.