

Lab Final Review

Across

8. You are working in the pharmacy and receive a cold call. The caller requests information on Keflex as their patient is experiencing shortness of breath and has a rash covering their body. How would you categorize this question?
10. Which drug has the following 3 therapeutic classes; anticonvulsant, carbonic anhydrase inhibitor, and diuretic? (Generic name)
13. Generic name for an antiarrhythmic drug. The IV is a high risk drug.
14. All compounding should occur more than ___ inches inside to hood and ___ inches from the sides and back of the hood.
16. Needle that must be used before injecting medication from an ampule into the IV bag
17. A method used to reduce medication errors of drugs that have similar spellings?

18. Air exiting the HEPA filter in a unidirectional air stream that is essentially particle free.
19. The least amount of time soap is to make contact with the skin while washing your hands before entering the IV room.
20. Compounding using non-sterile ingredients or devices.
- ## Down
1. The area in the hood where laminar air flow is disturbed.
2. Inappropriate abbreviations used in prescribing, illegible handwriting and improper transcription are three examples of the most common cause of what ?
3. Methods of manipulating parenteral supplies and equipment during the compounding process in such a way as to prevent contamination of the final preparation
4. The process of adding a diluent to a drug in powder form is called.....

5. The date or time after which a CSP shall not be stored or transported
6. Where you can report medication errors anonymously and where health systems can internally monitor their progress compared to national trends.
7. The area of the vial that is always supposed to be in contact with First Air from HEPA filter is...
9. Brand name for the drug that has the therapeutic class of labor inducer (Starts with a P)
11. We follow this stepwise Approach (1. Identify the genuine need 2. Collect the information 3. Analyze the information 4. Synthesize the information 5. Respond) when we receive a ?
12. Technique used to remove liquid from a liquid vial
15. Administration begins within 1 hour of preparation.