

Lab Safety

Across

2. If a chemical comes into contact with your eyes, wash them for at least _____ minutes.

4. You should always _____ the day's experiment before you begin, paying close to safety issues.

7. Report accidents to your teacher, no matter how _____ they may seem.

9. Wearing this will protect your clothes.

10. _____ one chemical with another can be dangerous. Never do so unless the textbook or your teacher has specifically asked you to.

11. Don't wear _____ in the laboratory, closed toe shoes are the best to wear.

14. Secure loose _____ before beginning a lab.

15. Only _____ lab equipment as your teacher instructs you to do so.

16. Secure dangling _____ before beginning a lab.

Down

1. In case of a fire, you should know the location of this important piece of equipment.

3. This kind of glassware is dangerous to use because it has stress points where the glass may break.

5. Never _____ any liquid while in the lab.

6. Tie up long _____ before beginning a lab.

8. _____ carefully to your teacher; they may tell you important information regarding the lab or equipment.

12. Never work _____ in the laboratory.

13. Handle scissors, scalpels, knives, and other _____ objects with extreme caution.