

Lab Week Crossword Puzzle April 2019

Across

1. Word used to describe when a result will be reflected with a number versus positive/negative?
 8. Location in LIS to check when blood type, PRBC is ordered to learn patients sample requirement history
 10. At the end of every month we check all supplies at each draw station and record in monthly log, what are we checking for?
 12. Test name for the grouping of the following tests: Measles/Rubeola, Mumps, Rubella?
 13. Panel Chem 20 is equivalent to which commonly known panel?

14. LIS Test code: for send out test that is time sensitive therefore we must alert our sent out team if we collect it close to 12pm. This requires a lavender collection tube and includes Quantitative Lymphocytes Subsets.
 16. Additional service provided by our PIH pharmacy
Down
 2. Our new extension X 13624 is for clinics to call and request which service?
 3. What collection tube color is needed for an HIV 1/2 Differentiation Test?
 4. Color of vial needed for Quest Urine test for Chlamydia/Gonorrhea?

5. Drop off process: Sample type we check for date of collection, as this sample type is typically only good for 48 hours. If found to be over 24 hours, we test at PIH.
 6. Venipuncture code that we must use for new PIH employees that come in to be tested for their immunity to Rubella, Mumps, Rubeola?
 7. When do we use a straight line through, initial and write reason for error?
 9. Which log must we complete daily including Saturdays?
 11. Test that may only be collected between the times of 10 am and 1 pm Monday to Friday
 15. Panel Chem 7 and Chem 8 are equivalent to which commonly known panel?