

Name: _____

Lab Week

Across

- 3. a liquid solution containing a combination of chemicals, which control and maintain the pH of any other solution its added to
- 4. the process by which pathology specimens are inspected with the bear eye to obtain dx information
- 9. deoxyribonucleic acid
- 10. a premier cancer dx and pharma service company

11. also histopathology; the study of tissue samples of patients to detect diseases

12. the mean for each laboratory's results will not be exactly the same

Down

- 1. a clear positive relation between two methods
- 2. biopsies of small samples of tissue taken from a mass or tumor, examined under a microscope to make a rapid dx during surgery

5. an instrument for measuring and indicating temperature

6. a protein produced by our body in response to an antigen

7. is the study of the microanatomy of cells, tissue, and organs as seen through a microscope

8. the study of disease

Word Bank

- |              |                      |           |               |
|--------------|----------------------|-----------|---------------|
| grossing     | biological variation | histology | buffer        |
| thermometer  | frozen section       | antibody  | cytopathology |
| neo genomics | pathology            | DNA       | correlation   |