

Laboratory Week Crossword Puzzle 2019

Across

2. Used to separate blood after collection

5. Red blood cell

7. The organ in which urine is formed

8. Cloudy appearance due to excess amount of fat in the blood

14. A test that needs to be collected or performed immediately is a _____ test

18. Quality metric used in the laboratory

20. Condition in which red cell count or hemoglobin level is below normal

21. Clumping of red blood cells that appears like a roll of coins

23. The rupture or destruction of red cells resulting in the release of hemoglobin

24. Physicians of the laboratory

25. Substance that stops blood from clotting

26. The process of forming a fibrin clot

28. The study of hormones

29. Substance with the potential to produce cancer in humans or animals.

Down

1. The procedure that removes waste substance from the circulating blood

3. Requiring oxygen

4. The color of tube used for Lactic Acid testing

6. The test that is ordered when the test is not available on the testing menu

9. Certified laboratory personnel who collects blood from a vein

10. Most important tool in preventing nosocomial infections

11. The liquid portion of the blood remaining after a clot is formed

12. Reproducibility of test results

13. Formed in the liver from the breakdown of hemoglobin.

15. The study of microorganisms

16. This needs to be completed at time of draw at the patient's bedside

17. Carrier of genetic information

19. Presence of blood in the urine

22. Request submitted to test from a previously collected sample

27. Hormone produced naturally by the pancreas that controls the level of glucose in the blood