

Landforms

Across

2. Lines on a world map which are parallel to each other

5. Lines on a world map which include the prime meridian

7. The action of surface processes that remove soil, rock, or dissolved material from one location

9. Line on a world map at 23 degrees south

10. Line on world map at 66 degrees north

11. Used to measure direction

12. Processes including plate tectonics and physical and chemical weathering, such as erosion, transportation and deposition, that form landforms

Down

1. Movement in the earth crust

3. a natural feature of the landscape that has been created by geomorphic processes

4. Breakdown of rock by physical and/or chemical processes

6. All the features, both human and physical, of an area of land

8. Landforms greater than 600m