

Landmarks of the Pelvis

Across

- 2. What bony landmark is identified by sliding your fingers inferiorly four to six inches along the lateral side
- 5. The _____ is located on the medial surface of the ilium and serves as an attachment site for the iliacus muscle
- 10. The _____ are often called the sit bones
- 11. Name a second bone that makes up the pubis

12. Name the second bone that is part of the pubis and vertebral column

13. Describe one difference between a female and male pelvis

Down

- 1. What bony landmark is best identified by two dimples on the back
- 3. The _____ can be palpated by following the superior pelvis from ASIS to the PSIS on the side of the torso

- 4. The _____ is comprised of 4-5 fused vertebrae
- 6. The _____ is the ridge running down the centre of the sacrum
- 7. Name one of the bones considered to be part of the pubis and vertebral column
- 8. Name the third bone of the pelvis
- 9. Name one of the bones that make up the pelvis