

Language features for close-reading.

Across

2. A word that shows action, being or having.
 4. A word that names a person, place, object or idea.
 7. A group of sentences that all relate to one specific idea.
 9. A group of lines in a poem, separated from other groups by a gap.
 12. The overall emotion or atmosphere created by a text.
 13. A word that sounds like the sound it describes.
 15. An exaggeration for effect.
 19. Using one thing to represent another (can be visual or written)
 20. An overused saying.
 22. Language that uses lots of words that encourage an emotional response.

23. Words used only in a specialised context.

24. A reference to a statement, person, place, event or thing that is known from literature, history, religion, myth, politics, sports, science, or the arts
 25. A command.
 26. The repetition of sounds at the beginning of words in a phrase

Down

1. A word that stands in for a noun.
 3. Two or more different things put side by side in order to compare them.
 5. A metaphor in which a non-living thing is given human qualities such as thoughts, feelings or actions.
 6. A word that describes or modifies a verb or adjective.
 8. A personal example.

10. Words that have the same sound.
 11. Saying one thing is another in order to compare them
 14. A word that describes or modifies a noun or pronoun.
 16. A word or phrase with two or more meanings.
 17. When a word or phrase is used more than once in a section of a text.
 18. A comparison between two things using 'like' or 'as'
 21. Relaxed, informal and familiar language we use every day.