

Name: _____ Date: _____

Language Features in Poetry

- |                         |                                  |
|-------------------------|----------------------------------|
| 1. anaphora             | A. word or phrase that repeats   |
| 2. epistrophe           | B. when you performed Bro-town   |
| 3. rhyme                | C. repetition at the end         |
| 4. assonance            | D. 'Do the dishes!'              |
| 5. alliteration         | E. 'She is a snake'              |
| 6. monosyllabic         | F. 'I am brown'                  |
| 7. polysyllabic sounds  | G. repetition at the beginning   |
| 8. onomatopoeia         | H. 'He is like a snake'          |
| 9. imperative           | I. 'illiterate, misbehaved'      |
| 10. rhetorical question | J. same consonant sounds         |
| 11. metaphor            | K. 'What's up with that?'        |
| 12. simile              | L. same end vowel and consonants |
| 13. symbolism           | M. 'leaves dance in the wind'    |
| 14. personification     | N. 'pow! bang! auau!'            |
| 15. hyperbole           | O. 'You never come to school!'   |
| 16. Allusion            | P. same vowel sounds             |
| 17. repetition          | Q. e.g.- blue for sadness        |