

Name: _____

Language Techniques

Across

1. Giving human characteristics to something non-human
3. A figure of speech used to make a comparison between two things that aren't alike
5. A repeated pattern of movement or sound
9. When a repetition of soft consonant sounds are used in words that sounds like a hiss or a whoosh
11. A similar sound between words or the ending of words
13. The act of positioning close together or side by side

14. A line of verse consisting of five metrical feet/ when the second syllable of a word is louder than the first

15. When a vowel sound is repeated in a phrase or sentence

16. A figure of speech involving a comparison of one thing to another

Down

2. It is a brief and indirect reference to a person, place or thing (everything)
4. When the same letter or sound is at the beginning of words closely together

6. When a phrase, clause or sentence in a line of poetry doesn't finish at the line but spills over to the next line

7. The art of using an object or word to represent a different idea

8. When something is repeated to describe something

10. The use of words that mean the opposite of what you really thing

12. An exaggerated statement or claim that shouldn't be taken literally